W C FREDERICK. FREDERICK & SON.

Merchants, WILMINGTON, N. C., Sept. 1st, 1871.

TO FARMERS

TOUR PARTICULAR AT ENTION is called Y to above Partnersnip, Feb'y, 1871, and we request that you will give us a share of your pairouage. Shipments of Cotton and Naval stores and other Country Produce are solicited. either for sale in this market, or for shipment to New York, "altimore, or other ports.

All cash orders filled at the lowest Market

NOTICE

S HEBEBY GIVEN THAT APPLICATION will be made to the Directors of the Wilming ton s weldon Rei'road O mpany for renewal of Certificate No 1185 for one share of the Capital tate to come forward and make payments; and dated June 16 h 1858, said oe tificates having been lost or mislaid so that they can not be found.

JAMES P. MOV HE.

STPERIOR COURT -- DUPLIN COUNTY. John D. Stanford, Plaintiff, against Alexander D McGowen, Wm. H. Williams, Edward W. Houston at d Hear O. son ton Deferdants.

Or er for Service by Publication. TAPPEARING to the satisfaction of the Court, that the De endant, Henry C. Hons ton, is a non-resident of this state, it is ordereithat publication be made in the Wilmington JOU ANAL, & we-kly news aper, published in the Ot yof Wilnington, N. O., once a week for eix weeks, successively, notifying him to appear before the Euperior Court of Duplin County, at the Court House in Kensusuil e on the 30th day of September, A D 18/1, and an-wer the com plaint of the Pisioniff a copy of which, with the summons is ordered to be mailed to him at Savannah, in the State of Georgia. Given under my hand and seal of office at Kensneville, Aug. 5th, 1871 J. D. SOUTHERLAND,

Clerk S. Court, Duplin County, N. C.

MODEL NEWSPAPER The Carolina Messenger,

FUBILI HED EVERY FILDAY, AT GOLD BORO . C. IMPROVED AND ENLARGED!

A NEWSPAPER OF THE RESENT IM 8, INTENDED FOR THE | E PLE NOW ON EARTH. fessional Men, and all man er of honest folker and the wives, some and daughters of all such. MIX JOPIES ONE YE R FOR $10

Every new subscriber receives, as AGIFI, a handsome POUKET MAP of NORTH CAROLINA, containing also a Calcudar, and the time of holding Superior Courts in every County throughout the

No North Carolinian should be Without this Map.

THE MESSENGER is p e-eminently a readable FAMILY APER (ow in its 7th olume,) and, as a vehicle of News has atways held the first rans mog Sumern journals Is news on every topic of interest -- political, literary, social domestic an if reign-is always fresh abondant. vari ne and accurate, comprising the whole circle of carrent intelligence, six-ye rendered with such prompti ude an i spirit that the paper has a large and increase g or culation.
AS AN ORGAN OF OPINION.

THE MESSENGER is fearless, trenctant, indomitable, ardent in its advocacy of sound Democravic princi des, unsoaring in its denunciati n of poli ical abuses and corruption; and not confining its di-cussion to mere politice, it takes a wide range, touches upon a great variety of e- 5jects, and aims to be a safe guide of public opinion on all topics which engage public attention It gives conspicuous prominence to State news and market reports.

CANVA-8E48 WANTED IN EVERY COUNTY. SEND YOUR MONEY in Post Office orders, wherever convenient, if not, then register the letters containing money. Address JULIUS A BONITZ Editor and Prop'r Goldsboro', N. C.

GREATEST

Dr. Fowler's Compound Extract,

FOR THE CURE OF

Scrofulla, Syphilis, Liver Comp'aint. Constipation, Chronic Rheumatism, Disease of the Kidneys and Bladder, and all Blood Impurities.

We offer to the American public a new and valuable remedy for the above-mentioned disesses. Fowler's Compound Extract is composed sally used by the best Physicians; each of which | Argus. in combination, supplies what experience has shown to be wanting when singly imployed; but the result of patient investigation, requiring time, labor and skill, so as to give the public a genuine article, which they can rely upon, and in place of the worthless and dangerous Patent Medicines flooding the country; and therefore enables us to warrant Fowler's Compound Extract to be the most perfect cura ive for diseases of the blood ever discovered.

SUROFULA.

the eye clear and sparkling, and the whole hu- as that of the European Switzerland. man organization becomes healthy.

SYPHILIS,

Of all diseases which flash is is heir to, none bring so much misery moral and physical as Syphilis. To all so afficted we can truly say this rom dy will help you Two articles found the disease are contained in this compound .tract, and by giving it a fair trial, it will cure

We speak with much confidence of Dr. Fowong experience an honorable man, who, hav ng a reputation for character, as well as ourelves, would never allow a medicine to go beafter a fair trial, it will do al we claim for it. We offer it as a new discover, which it cer-tainly is a ganuine ar icle for Scrofulla, Syphilis, and all blood impuritee; and answing the gen uineness of it, as such we send it forth, saying, "Go Heal the "uffering!"
PRICE, ONE DOLLAR PER BOTTLE.

BOCKOVER BUOS., Sole Proprietors, 113 Liberty Street, New York City.

J. K. MCICHENNY. Wholesale and Retail Druggist. J. D. PEARSALL

General Commission & Forwarding HAVING QUALIFIED AS INSPECTOR OF Naval Stores, &c., respectfully offers his services to his friends and the public generally. may 19

ROBERT C. JOHNSON.

INSPECTOR OF NAVAL STORES, COTTON, &c. WILMINGTON, N. C. OFFICE AT JOHN O. HEYER'S STORE, would inform his friends and old customers that he has qualified as Inspector, and solicits their patronage.

NOTICE. THE SUBSORIBER BAVING BEEN DULY I qualified as Executrix of the last will and Stock of said Company, dated December 14th, all those having claims against the said estate 1855, and Certificate No. 1349 for six shares to present them within the sime of the said estate to present them within the time prescribed by law, or this notice will be tleaded in bar of their MARGARET C. JOHNSON, recovery. Executrix.

VOID QUACKS, _A VICTIM OF EARLY A void QUACKS, A VICTIM OF EARLY indiscretion, causing nervous debility, premature decay, etc., having tried in vain every advertised remedy, has discovered a simple means of self-cure, which he will send free to his fellow-sufferers. J. H. TUTTLE, 78 Nassau St., New Yo k City.

STATE NEWS.

49-w6mch

A new Presbyterian Church is being ciety. erected in Tarboro.

Raleigh has the horse breaking complaint again.

Dull, duller, dullest is the cry of the Tarboro' Southerner. Major Robert Bingham lectures on jan 13

"The Bible," in Hil sboro', next Saturday The new road steamer ordered foruse in |

Fayetteville, is to be exhibited at the to the newspap r world in this section of State Fair in Raleigh, next month. Mr. R. E. Stamps is to publish shortly, paper in Raleigh.

c atin in politics. So says the Tarboro' Stevens, stationed at Newbern during the to paint, and hopes by this means to earn Southerner. The sum of $15 has been raised in Charlotte, and placed in the Observer's first Martyr to the Southern cause. The Hillsboro' Recorder says that Mrs. Graham, wife of Mr. Diniel Graham, of Orange county, became entirely deaf on Monday last, and her voice will soon be gone. The affl ction fell on her in the winkling of an eye. A great revival of Religion, and protracted meeting, has just closed in the Baptist Church at Darbam- under the c re and management of the Rev. F. M. J rdan. About twenty one have made an open profe sion of their faith.

cotton on Wednesday It was shipped by wine will be much less than last year. S. B. West & Co., of Kins on, to Geo. W. Dill & Co., of Newbern, and is to be sent on to New York. This we learn from the Journal of Commerce.

charged with the commission of rape upon the person of a respectable white lady in this county, several weeks ago, was arrested on our streets by the town Constable, Mr. J. E. Hartman, and lodged in jail. -He will probably be tried during the present term of the court.

The Williamston Spectator says: A genand conjurer, made his appearance in that had too much wet weather. section a few days ago, and was soon callsic, and promised relief, but the patient a new and interesting feature. instead of getting better, grew gradually worse and worse, until at last he was compelled "to shuffle off this mortal coil," and the doctor left in great haste for parts un-

Salisbury R. R. and Mr. Manny of the made in Sampson. Yadkin R. R. made telling speeches in the Court House last Friday.

Major Townsend said if Anson would subscribe $25,000 to the Yadkin R. R. ling the Sate Fair. he had no doubt that it would be put through, and he had no doubt that two other new Railroads would make this the point of intersection, which, with the two already nesting us, Wadesboro' would become a great inland distributing market, of the best medicines known to Materia Medica. and a city of importance. We think so Hampton, of S. C., Gen. R. B. Vance, of It is perfectly pure in all its ingredients, being | too-and earnstly urge our people to take | N. C., and other distinguished gentlemen, composed of several well-known articles univer- stock in this great work. - Wadesboro'

> The Raleigh Era contains the following: "AMERICAN LEGATION. BERLIN, Aug., 7, 1871. His Excellency Tod R. Caldweil,

your communication of the 8th of May, in always give me the sincerest pleasure to "wasted on the desert air." bear my testimony to the beauty and natural fertility and salubrity of that lovely region of country and the hospitali- seriou accident happened to the stage terrible disease. How many diseases have their ty of its inhabitants. Western North Car. running between Asheville and the head sest in the blood-diseases which have been olina is the Switzerland of the United of the Western North Carolina Railroad treated value for years. If the blood alone is States, East of the Mississippi. I have on last Monday night. On crossing the purified, in most cases h alth and happiness passed through four of its gaps, and I Blue Ridge the sage was precipitated will soon return. Dr. Fowler's Compound acts have twice been up or down the valley of some hundred feet down the mountain especially upon the virus in the blood, causing the French Broad. I hope it may ere in time the disconnection of the blood, causing the French Broad. I hope it may ere passengers. We regret that we have not in time the disappearance of the hideous sores, long, be filled with as dense, as industriand restoring the skin to a health'ul appearance, ous and as free and happy a population

I remian yours, sinc rely GEG. BANCROFT."

AN OLD CREMONA FIDDLE ON ITS TRAVELS. -We saw an old fiddle shipped the other day from Company Shops to Maryland .-Col. Johnson shipped it to Mrs. Davis. formerly a Miss Hollister, of Raleigh .by experience to be peculiarly efficacions for This old violin was bought in 1845 by the late Wesley Hollister, at that ime Super-We ask you to try Dr. Fowler's Compound Ex- intendent of the Raleigh and Gaston Rail road, at a sale of old baggage on that He paid ton dollars for it. Had it fixed up and strung and loaned it ler's Compound, occause we know what it is bired up and straigh to play on. composed of, and what it will do. We know Dr. to a lady in Raleigh to play on. Fowler well, who is a physician of known re- This lady offered Mr. Hollister five pute, standing second to mone in the con try, of hundred dollars for it and begged and in avery few places, there meritorious men because they were related him to name the price. But he wouldn't will be fair crops made. On the whole, by blood, or alliance, to the President ! sell. At his death the fidle was loaned out the crops will be meagre, and the people Now, Ulysses S. Grant appoints all his the rudder post. fore the public without merit. And we say of and went the rounds, at last landing in will have to depend upon supplies from Methodist relatives to offices for which, this Compound, if taken according to directi us, the hands of Dr. Stith. of High Point, who abroad. paid fifty dollars for it. In the meantime Mrs. Davis, of Masyland, wrote to Col. Johnson, the Executor of her father's estate, to look the old violin up, and he did so, buying it back from Dr. Stith at a hun-his arrest, it is said, will lead to disclos-dred dollars. Inside of this violin is the ures implicating the Mormon Church au-ply because he was of his blood, when an inscripton : "Antonius Stradiuarius, Cre mon faciebat anno 1653." The sound very thin, that you can hear the vibra- from death at Shark river, N. J., on Sat- But, of the two errors, of an ultra Roman

Its tune is rich and magnificent-a real old Cremona. up in the most neglected places. Sometime before the war as Colonel John Manly was walking down street in Raleigh he met a little negro dragging an old fiddle along with wheels under its belly for a wagon "What'll you take for that fiddle boy ?" said he : "A quarter, Master," answered the boy, and he gave it. This violin which was magnificent one afterward fell into Mr. Bob. Sewell's possession and when the Yankees came to Raleigh they took it from him. He had rather have lost a horse, - Hillsboro' Re-

Gov. Caldwell is in Burke county. The colored people of Goldsboro' have camp meeting.

testament of Robert O. Johnson, deceased, here-at present. The hote's at Morehead and Beaufort are doing a good business. erected in Kinston. Mr. C. A. Joyner, of Nash county, was on his body.

sent to the Lunatic Asylum on the 29th ult. There will be an enthusiastic Temperday, November 10th next. Third Creek Station, on the Western N.

C. Railroad, has started a temperance so-county.

tide through the inlet.

in larboro', a new weekly paper. Demo The U. S. revenue steamer, E. A. a tolerable good mouth. He is now trying thews, U. S. Inspector of poilers.

Wilmington, Delaware. hands, to be forwarded to Mr. John immediate steps are to be taken to erect a highest terms of the step-father, who Harbor) to take the place of that destroyed | kindnes.

> by the Confederate forces in 1862. The Rutherford Vindicator says: J. C. Davidson sold his place at Old For to a South Carolinian and a Canadian for $24,000. They in end to settle a colony of Canadians on it, and put up large manu-

THe Eagle regrets to learn that Mr. A. A. McKe hao, or., of Fa ettevills, had his arm br ken, on Friday evening last, by an unruly horse.

The Fayetteville Eagle learns that the scuppernong grape crop this year is ess Newbern received its first bale of new than average in its section. The yield of Mr. John A. Long has resigned the office of Superior Court Clerk for Rich-

a Conservative, has been appointed, by On Sunday last, John Bron, a negro, Judge Buxton, to fill the vacancy.

The Battleboro Advance says: Serious tleman residing in the upper portion of ton crops in this section. The cotton is the county informs us that a root doctor shedding its bolls very rapidly. We have bas declined. Light demand for justice;

ed on by one of his colored friends, who tween practiced sportsmen on the last pocket-picking; would be better but for was suffering with some slight ailment. - day of the Henderson Fair. A premium the police. Comething done in suicide. He administered a large dose of his phy- of $50 is offered to the best shot. This is House-breaking rather active just now.

The Goldsboro' Messenger says: A friend writing us from Sampson county down in the month" because their cotton crop is damaged so severely by the rust. Major Townsend of the Cheraw and .. Not much more than half a crop can be

An effort is being made to have the annual game of ball of the Cherokee Indians, in this State, played at Raleigh dur-

North Carolina Agricultural and Mechan- tended to be kept, plenty. Honesty firm, ical Association will be held in Sausbury but at low prices. Usury rather flat. Ex-On October 10.h, and continue four days, tortion flat also. Covetousness, more fatal Gen. Heary A. Wiso, of Va., Gen. Wade | than cholera, increasing." are expected to be present.

bighlands of North Carolina may receive | quiet and slight-of-hand performer, and on it as below :

been able to ascertain the names of those injured. The stage was crowded with passengers.

The ladies of Hillsboro' were to have given a Tableaux entertainment last evening, for the purpose of raising funds to upon the transportation of the remains of him that "one member of the Monroe North Carolinians from the battlefield of family having been honored very far be-Gettysburg to Raleigh.

Sunday last, this vicinity was blessed with for the rest of the family, and so I abaua refre hing shower of rain—the first, of don the ungrateful service of the United of the Apaches against the white settlements is any consequence, since June. It came, States." bowever, too late for the crops, which are | What a revelation of the distance from irretrievably out off. In some portions of the county, it istill dry; Jefferson and Monroe, refused to appoint in Utah for the murder of a Spaniard last try into deeper and deeper disgrace. fail, was a Mormon in good fellowship, and thorities in other crimes.

Sixteen bathers had a narrow escape board with your fingers when you talk, - | sand.

LIFE IN A TOMB.

These sweet old violins are often picked The Story of James T. Anderson of Iowa-A Living Head on a Dead Body-Writing and Learning to Paint with His Mouth, In Iowa resides James T. Anderson, aged 26. Three years ago he died from his neck downward. His head, however, is alive, and more vigorous and active than before the body which it once governed ceased to be vital. At the age of two James' father died, and his mother soon married again. At the age of three he was tossed several times by an angry cow. Shortly afterward, while he was eating bread and milk, a rattlesnake joined him, and when the two had finished, his snakeship made his bow and retired. At five years old a horse ran away with him, and made for a stable, across the entrance of which was a bar. The horse rushed in Tarboro' has a flourishing debating so- under the bar and his mother seized him just in time to save his life. He grew up Tarboro' is said to be remarkably healthy active and strong, and was fond of sports.

He became a good gymnast. James, at tue time of the accident that eft him with a dead body and a living orders. head, was a fine, handsome young man. A new Presbyterian church is soon to be He weighed two hundred pounds, and

O e afternoon, when on a visit to an ora at Glanwood, Iowa, he was exercising on a pole placed from one tree to ance Convention held in Kaleigh on Fri- another in the back yard. He had on a pair of gaiters, tipped with patent leather. He swung down from the pole by his feet; the leather s ipped, and he fell. He struck his neck just where it joins the shoulders. He was bewildered; but perfectly con-Bishop Moore, colored, of the African scio is. His body felt as though smashed Church, is visiting his churches in Lincoln to a jelly. He experienced a horrible ting ling; and when the doctor came he told A regular Baptist Church was organized him not to touch him, as his body was at Boone, Watanga county on the 15th broken to pieces. His neck was broken. i flammation set in, and all thought his day's work. It is said that the channel at Hatteras is | end was come. To the surprise of all, in house, where he still resides.

It is said that Maj. Hearne, well known resolved to learn to write with his mouth gineer. country, is about starting a Democratic He accompli hed this, and, as he says in a letter to Mr. J. K. Nutting, he soon wrotpast six years, is undergoing repairs at som thing for his support. He has been, and still is, tenderly cared for by his sis-The Newbern Republican learns that ter, herself a cripple, and steaks in the Wyatt, the father of Henry Wyatt, the new light house at Fort Macon (Beaufort though a poor man, has shown him every ted by Causi in a speech at a recent Italian feebuzz about his face. He holds a leafy fight was necessarily ended. wig in h s mouth, however, and manage to twirl it about in a wonderful way and drive off his tormeutors. This case is without a parallel, except that of John imilar way, and who became a famous painter .- N. Y. Sun.

Commercial Wit.

The commercial column of so stately a journal as the New York Journal of Commerce is not the place where one would unturnally expect to find a satiric report of the Louisiana Republicans is here waiting for the morals market, yet in vesterday's issue, sandwiched between an item on the law of promissory notes and a survey of the money market, appears the following mond county, and Mr. Dugaid Stewart,

"There has been a good demand for sharpness and acuteness. We notice also some call for roguery and rascality. Sel-The Fayetteville Eagle says: We learn fishness is steady. Prudence-The stock that the mail from here to Warsaw will be small, but the demand inconsiderable. changed from daily to semi-weekly. We Peculation and embezzlement looking up. hope soon to have a daily mail, making Gross flattery active, with a rising tendenclose connection from here to Lumberton. ey. Adroit lying at a premium. Not much demand for truth except in small quantities; holders firm. Candor unchanged. apprehensions are entertained for the cot- Uprightness has a downward tendency. Zeal for the right, dull and quiet. Modesty not much offered. Cunning more active There will be a big shooting match be- than usual. A good business done in Popularity-Many and lively bids at first and second call. Love of goodness and of good men rather quiet. Charity of the first quality, little offered; lower grades are in good demand, especially if they "Did wilfully and feloniously neglect and omit promise quick returns. Sincerity rather to have a sound boiler and competent engineers, scarce and demand moderate. Hypocrisy &c., on the Westfield." -Some stir; we may say active. A little doing in stabbing and rape. Drunkenness charge of passing a worthless check, pats in an -Much offered and a good deal taken. affidavit that he deposited the requisite amount Recklessness in demand Foolishness-Much in the market, and considerable presented before the time stipulated. quantities taken at high prices. Something The first annual fair of the Western doing in overtrating. Promises, not in-Rozenswig will be completed to-night.

Then and Now.

The Rev. A. F. Monroe, S. J., a grandnephew of President Monroe, died at the The Greensboro Patriot says: We have Jesuit house of St. Xavier, New York, on a white prisoner in our county jail, by the 2d instant. He was formerly an offiname of Wm. Chester, who can eat live cer of the United States Navy, but refire coals, put molten lead in his mouth signed his commission in that service and and keep it till it becomes solid, put his became a Jesuit priest. In noticing his Sir: I have had the honor of receiving tongue on a red hot shovel, &c., without death, the Freeman's Journal, of New experiencing the least pain. In the same | York, relates an interesting anecdote of which you expressed your hope that the cell are two other prisoners, one a ventrilo he father of the deceased and comments defaulting agent, was issued to-day.

a large emigration. Be assured it will the other a "dancist." Here's talent His father's name was Austin Monroe, well known as the brightest of the nephews of the Col. James Monroe, who was fifth The Hickory Tavern Eagle says : A President of the United States. Austin Monroe was an officer of the American regular army, during the war of the United States with England, in 1812-14.-With the slow and methodical exactness of that day, a list of officers recommended for promotion for meritorious services in hat war, was made out only after Col. James Monroe had been made President of the United States. He approved of all diff, yesterday, and the Captain and engineer him steal your treasures." the War Department had recommended were blown overboard and drowned except one. His reason for not approving him, was that he was his own nephew. The highly-spirited young Austin Monroe was justly incensed at this. He called assist in defraying the expense attendant on his uncle, the President, and said to yand his merits, in being made President of the United States, has proved a bar to The Rockingham Observer says: On the recognition of deserved advancement which we have fallen down. Washington, every one knows, they are totally unfit, and in the failure of discharging their Wm. Hickman, who has been arrested offices aright, they are plunging the coun-We think President Monroe was wrong impartial War Department had recommended him for a de-erved advancement. tions of the strings by just pressing the urday, in consequence of holes in the severity, and of a service nepotism, how

THE VERY LATEST NEWS TELEGRAPH. $100,000, mostly wooden buildings. There was very little insurance. A portion of the goods

CABLE DISPATCHES,

LONDON, Fept. 2. A strict quarantine has been established in the Isle of Jersey to prevent the introduction of he cholera.

The ship Anna, bound to Copenhagen, has been wrecked. All hands lost. A monster demonstration occurs at Phosnex Park, Doublin, to-morrow, in favor of amnesty.

VERSAILLES, Sept. 2. The Assembly have accepted the Presidency of scheme. M. Triers, not because they are content with Thiere's terms, or afraid of his resignation, but because they could not get no one else to take his place. Upon Damales's final refusal, the Assembly determined to support M. Thiers. MacMahon, Changeniar and President Grevy refused to vote. Grevy said that he was a better

MADRID, Sept. 2. there was not a superfluous ounce of flesh lists have been ordered to report to their leaders on the 8th, and be ready for rising on the 10th.

From New York.

POUGHKEFPSIE, Sept. 2. eloping with a married woman, whose husband voice, as she danced and sang, clattering worn like a coronal about her head, and led the mob.

Reports from the north and south show that number of vessels in their employ.

NEW YORK, Sept. 2.

The Grand Jury yesterday found a bill of inconstantly improving by the action of the lafter as is a few days he began to mend. He was distinct for manuslanguter in the third degree ished, Mrs. Garkin beckoned to the bril--hortly after removed to his stepfather's sgainst Jacob H. Vanderbilt, President of the liant-eyed swarthy elf who stood pushing Staten Island Ferry Company, James H. Brais- the wavy, jet black locks away from her Time hung heavily on his hands and he ted, Superintendent, and Henry Robinson, En- forebead

> An indictment for manelaughter in the fourth | "you and your father-" degres has been found against John K. Mat-

A duel was fought on Long Island yesterday between two well known Italian gentl men, a slice of my home-wade loaf and a good General Farde i and Signo L. Causi. Farde i di h of milk. Ill go bail he won't obchallenged, who claimed that he had been insul- lect to that." tival The weapons used were sabres. Fardeii His worst enemies are the flies which received severe wound in the shoulder, and the

WASHINGTON, D. O., Sept. 2. The Pecretary of the Tre-sury has called in cease to bear interest, or be available as bank Diusilla, and the was right. Blanca was reserve, after the 31st October. From Long Branch,

A Committee of the Welmouth faction of

From Washington,

an interview with the President.

LONG BRANCH, Sept. 2

From Tennessee, NASHVILLE, Sept. 2. One million and three quarters in State bonds has been paid for franchise to the Mobile and

From Missouri. ST. Louis, Sept. 2.

The steamer Carrie V. Kauntz, which sunk below Columbus, was valued at $30,000. A portion of the cargo will be saved.

From Illinois, CHICAGO, Sept. 2.

NEW YORK, Sept. 2. The indictment against Vanderbilt reads

The Cuban Col. Ryan, who was arrested on the to meet the check in the bank but the check was Capt. Cameron and Inspector Walling think that the last link in the evidence to convict Francis Haggarty, one of the Westfield victime, died to-day.

From Missouri, ST. Louis, Sept. 2. Edward Clamonth, alias Dedulan, the profeesed astrologist, was arrested to-day, charged with swindling in $3,000.

From Pennsylvania.

PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 2. A criminal requisition for Evans, the alleged

CABLE DISPATCHES,

BERLIN, Sept. 2. Bianca. peror Napoleon, and the French army at Sedan, was celebrated throughout Germany to-day by festivities of a patriotic character. The Bavarian Chamber of Representatives is convoked for Reptember 26th. LONDON, Sept. 2. A boiler exploded on board of a bark at Car-

The number of emigrants, who sailed from George back and forth on her knee. Liverpool during the month of August, was four thousand greater than the same month for any previous year.

BAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 2.

missioners, is a total failure, but the campaign a complete success.

From California.

The campaign against the Apaches, owing, it is alleged, to the interference of the Peace Com-

Marine Disnater NOBFOLK, Sept. 2 The brig Bocky Glen, from Baltimore for B 1-

Bank Statement, NEW YORK, Sep. 2.

$1,000,000; legal tenders have decreased From Mississippi.

Rhodes and Commerce streets was burnedt his the city, who was down fishing in the cool sets in.

Specie Shipment,

NEW YORK, Sep. 2. Specie shipments to-lay amounted to $260,000

From New Orleans, New ORLEANS, Eept. 2. The name of J. R. West, United States Senator, figured in the water works bribery business, in the City Council, and a prominent State of ficial is reported to be largely interested in the BIANCA'S LOVE LIFE.

"Well, if I ever!" cried honest Mrs. Gaskin, staring delightfully at the tricks Republican than Thiers. The other two said of the trained monkey that was attached they were unwilling to become a pretext for dis- to Michael Peroni's barrel organ.

The noon shadows slanted along across the green sward in front of the farm house Advices from the front'er report that the Car- door; the tall white lilies and thickets of blue larkspurs drooped in the hot sunshine, and the corn fields at the back of the house nodded their multitudinous green heads in the occasional zaphyrs, as the farmer's wife, with her little ones clinging shyly to her skirts, stood in the A mob to-day broke into a house and tarred door-way, listening to the drone of the and feathered the occupant who was accused of organ and little Bianca's shrill yet sweet her castanets high in the air

"And I don't believe she's a day older an organized band of burglars are working the than my Maggie," said Mrs. Gaskin, as towns along the Hudson river. They have a little Georgie, scarcely as yet able to toddie without assistance, creep across the short, dandelion starred grass to put his The plasterers intend striking for 8 hours as a penny in the monkeys's withered palm .-'Dear heart alive ! there's something sad about it too!"

> And when the song and dance was fin-"You're to come in, my dear," she sail

> "But he is not my father." interrupted the child, almost impatiently. "Well, the foreig er anyhow, and get > Little Bianca turned and chatted something in Italian to her empanion. He displayed his gittering white teeth in a saile, and bowed obs quiously to the farmer's wife. Mrs. Gaskin led the way in. and with busting h spitally spread the board for Peroni, Bianca, and even the poor shrivelled face monkey.

"I-u't sue a protty chied!" whist ered arter of Eugland, who was injured in a two millon three per cent certificates. They M s. Gaskin to her old maid s ster, Miss very beautiful, in spite of her sun-em browned skin, bare feet and ragged scare frock. Her yes large and liquid were full of the deepening saustine of her na- house, tive Italy; her features were small and regular, and her month as ripe and rosy as the biggest strawberry now ripening on the vines under the south garden fence. "Ah !" sighed Drusilla Peck, "it is a > country to sing songs and dance dances for a livin'." And when Bianca turned away, fantasti Ohio Railroad, reducing the State debt to that | cally returning thanks for the entertain ment she had received, by kissing Mis. Gaskin's toil-hardened hand, the good woman's motherly heart fairly ached for the lonely, lovely child, who seemed as if it were adrift upon the world. Not until the party of foreign adventurers had been gone more than two hours, did Mrs. Gaskin discover, to her unspeakable dismay, that one of the siver spoons which had been heirlooms from her dead and buried grandmother, and the little A locomotive of the Cincinnatti Express train | silver mug that David, her eldest boy, had exploded near Springfield, killing two of the had in the days of his babyhood, were gone also. "I knew it !" dolorously groaned Miss Drusilla. "These foreign jugglers are all light fingered. What else could ye expect, Amanda Ann ?"

not so much, it must be confessed, for the batered silver mug and antiquated teaspoon, as for the ruthless demolishment of the many castles in the air she had built around the sweet face and fairy tig ure of black eyed little Bianca. "I never, never will believe in anybody again," sobbed the farmer's wife.

The purpole shadows of twilight were just steeling down over the corn fields, and making a dreamy sort of chira oscuro over hill and slope and misty river vale, when Mrs. Gaskin, rocking George to sleep on her lap with one of the sweet, stereotyped old cradie songs that all mothers know by heart, was startled by a light

"Signora?" cried a soft voice in her "Why, bless my soul?" cried Mrs. Gaskin, "it's the little foreigner !" "I've brought back the cup and spoon of silver," said Bianca. "He took them-

I saw it, but I dared not speak, for he is cruel in his wayward moods, and bears a tap on her shoulder.

heavy hand. To-night, when he lay asleep under the hedge, I stole them from his pecket, and here they are.' Mrs. Gaskin started first at the unexpectedly recovered property, and then at

"Sit down and rest yourself a spell, said she, "before you go back. You're all out of breath." "I am not going back," said Bianca resolutely. "He would beat me to death.

But you kissed me, and gave me bread to eat and milk to drink. I could not let cisco, and the two city gentleman return-"What are you going to do !"

"I don't know," Bianca answered rocklessly. "I have run away." "Run away! and you not twelve years "The child gave a curious Italian shrug to her brown shoulders.

castanets here under my shawl. On, never fear. Bianca Nifanto need not quite boat have be n recovered from the wreck. starve while there are berry bushes b, the Tae divers, to their explorations of the roadside, and clear cold water in the sunken ship, found in the engine room "That's all nonsense," interrupted hon-

"God bless you for the word, father," Mrs. Gaskin cried, starting up. "It's what The Sarsays that the outlook from a Loans have increased nearly $2,000 000; specie has increased $1,500,000; deposits have increased > one's door," said David buskily. MEBIDIAN, Sept. 2. der the sheltering shadow of the farm- out, and there are rumors that one or two admitted.

$100,000, mostly wooden buildings. There was hear her singing in the twilight. cultivated."

"I never heard a sweeter voice in my life," said Mr. Milford. "It should be "she goes to singin' school twice a week with Dave and Maggie," said Mr Gaskin, with the air of one who feels that he has done his fall duty.

The upshot of it was, that when Mr. Milford went away he took Bianca with him, to train her delicious young voice as he believed it was capable of being trained. "That nightingale throat of hers will make her fortune yet! predicted Mr.

with a passionate burst of tears. "I'll love you always-always-for you were my friends when I had no one in all the wide world to turn to" Five years afterward, and the voice whose donna of the operatic stage-the cantatrice whose ballads were worth a gold piece for every note; and she had come down to spend the summer with her old friends in the brown-roofed farm house. As beautiful as ever; star-eyed and cream-skinned, with lustrous black hair unconsciously graceful ways. David Gasearch of eggs, and follow, dog-like, at his heels when be went at twilight to bring home the cows? "Ah, Bianca," he said, almost envious-

"Oh David, whom should I remember. if not you!" David got up and began to pace up and rich too?" "What young man !" "That Sidney Willoughby, the one who came down ir m New York just because cream-colored horses who is boarding at Jeacon Muss'." "Ob, Mr. Allaire !" said Bianca innocently. "He is very wealthy too."

"It must be fine to have such a train at

'Is it my fault, David !" said Bianca, In st ready to burst into tears. "Can I old them s ay away !'

one's heels," said David bit erly.

But Mrs. Gaskin too went in o the house without answering. What could she say pity she should have to tramp round the to the beau iful young cantatrice? Would it be fitting to make answer?

> glow-worm aspires to the calm glitter of But Bianca could not but notice that swollen and red the next day.

swered, with a great convulsive sob .-'David is going away.' "David! Going away! Where?"

"But he sha'n't go," cried Bianca resolutely. "I'll ask bim not." And she went out in the orchard, where David was moodily gathering a basket of gold skinned "summer boughs," looking very handsome and very misant iropic in the green chequered light that came streaming down through the apple tree

" David, is it true that you are going

"Yes, Blanca, it is true." " And why ?" "Simply because I am miserable here. Isn't that reason enough?"

The gold-cheeked summer-boughs went tumbling in a yellow carcade all over the short, green orchard turf. David Jaskin had unwarily let go the basket handle.

loughby ?" "One hair of your head, David, is more to me than both of them put together." He clasped her little hands rapturously.

"You unreasonable fellow! as if a woman wasn't always obliged to wait until sh was asked !"

beaming all over. "I think you have," said the prima donna calmly. "And now let us go in." David Geskin did not go to San Franed discousolate to the metropolis, and asked Bianca is to be married in the spring; and Mrs. Gaskin, still mechanically rocking in the mean time her voice is sweeter than ever, as she warb'es the love songs of Italian romance, with an echo from her own happy heart.

The bodies of Third Assistant Engineers G. M. Gowan, H. W. Miri m. A. Mitchel and M. Shonburg, attached to the m u tor Weehawken, when she sunk cember, 1863, by a Confederate torpedo four gheatly skele one; nearly denuded of flesh, which upon being removed were r mine t establishments for the enter-Kirkwood and the Seaton House-have

RATES OF ADVERTISING.

1 square, of 10 lines or less, for each and every

Special Notices will be charged $2 00 per square for each and every insertion.

All Obituaries and private publications of every character are charged as advertisements. No advertisement reflecting upon private character can, under ANY CIRCUMSTANCES, be morning except the Savings Bank building; loss trout streams of the woods, chanced to "Singing school! She should go on the stage. Such a talent as that ought not to be hidden away in a napkin."

Milford. "She'll forget us all," wept poor Mrs. Gaskin, when the hour of parting came. "No mamma dear, I won't" cried Bianca, wondrous strains George Milford had prophetically heard, had entranced the musical world. Bianca Nifanto was the prima kin, her playmate of olden times, looked at her with mute wonder. Could it be possible that she was the little Bianca who used to climb the hay lof s with him in ly, "you are a rich lady now, and a great singer. I wonder you remembered us." Bianca turned her soft eyes appealingly lown be flour. "I suppose that young man at the hotel

"Yes, he is rich, I believe." "And the gentleman with the team of you were coming.

But David, determined at all hazards to be displeased, had turned sallenly into the "Mammy," cried Biauca, for by this name she's ill addr. ssed good Mrs. Gackin. "what makes Lavid so cross with me? What have I done to make him a gry ?"

"My son, the hard working farmer lad. has ventured to fall in love with you, queen of song and beauty. Even so the feeble the eyes of the good farmer's wife were "Mammy," she cried, "what is the matter? Are you sick?" "Heart-sick, child," Mrs. Gaskin an-

" To San Francisco, he says. Ah, me ! and I thought he would be the stay and prop of my old age !"

Mrs. Gaskin fairly sat down and cried-

PRV. S.

away ?"

"David,"-the black eyelashes drooped, and a soft, rosy pink stole over the rich offive cheek, as Bianca stood there before him in the attitude of a suppliant -- "David. would you stay if I asked you?"

"Bianca, do you really mean it?" "Yes, David ?" "And Mr. Allaire, and Sydney Wil-

"Why did'nt you tell me this before, my own dark-eyed darling ?"

"I've been a jealous fool," quoth David,

"What else can I do? I shall beg my way. I can sing, I can dence; I have my in Charles on harbor on the 6th of Deest David Gaskin's voice from the augle in recognized by their clothing as being the fast, put in here to-day, leaking badly arround the porch, where he had sat un it now remains of Assistant Eng neers of the illunnoused. "Mother, she must stay with fated vessel.

I'd mort wish for in all he world, but hotel point of vew in Washington is not we've eight of our own, and it's a hard row encouraging this season. Since the adfor you to hoe, and I didn't just like to journmen of Congress no less than three "One can't turn a stray lamb away from tainment of strangers-Willard's, the And so little Branca Nifanto stayed un been closed up and their furniture sold The square bounded by F.ont, Johnson, house roof until one day, a stranger from more will follow suit before the Winter